Active/Inactive

Dear <name>,

We notice that you have not logged into your profile for a month or so. Please log in at <platform link> and update your profile, specifically:

- your current job search status (active/inactive)
- your current location

We use this information to connect candidates with opportunities so it is very important that your profile is up to date as it will mean that you have a greater chance of being selected for your ideal job.

Please also make sure that the CV you have uploaded is up to date including details of your most recent jobs and if you have any new verbal reference contacts to give us please also update this on your profile as well as uploading any new written references you might have.

If we don't hear from you in the next 14 days we will automatically change your profile status to "inactive"

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions. We look forward to finding you your ideal position whether now or in the future.
